

SUMMARY PROGRAMME

Critical Interdisciplinary Course Human Rights for Development (CICCR): Children's rights governance between the global and the local

	Sunday 28/08	Monday 29/08	Tuesday 30/08	Wednesday 31/08	Thursday 01/09	Friday 02/09	Saturday 03/09
Theme		Multidisciplinary introduction	Multidisciplinary introduction	Multidisciplinary introduction	Contextual orientation	Contextual orientation
9 – 10.30	Arrivals	Introduction & Getting to know each other Sara Lembrechts & Kathy Vlieghe	Perspectives from anthropology, childhood studies and development studies Kristen Cheney	A social work perspective Didier Reynaert	Field visit: Ghent as a child friendly city Marianne Labre	Contextualisation in practice: multi-level governance Simon Hoffman	Free
11 – 12.30		Children's rights as human rights: A legal perspective Wouter Vandenhole		Children's rights: an interdisciplinary Perspective (workshop & discussion) Ellen Desmet, Sara Lembrechts, Didier Reynaert & Wouter Vandenhole		Contextualising children's rights in policy making Sara Lembrechts
14 – 15.30		Workshop: A rights based approach Wouter Vandenhole	Young people's rights : A critical geographical perspective (lecture & workshop) Stuart Aitken	Children and young people's participation - making a difference? Kay Tisdall	Joint activity and discussion to close the second cluster Simon Hoffman, Sara Lembrechts, Didier Reynaert & Kay Tisdall
16 – 17.30	Meet & Greet	Briefing assignment and course evaluation Sara Lembrechts & Wouter Vandenhole	Individual Assignment	Child friendly cities Sven De Visscher	Individual assignment

	Sunday 04/09	Monday 05/09	Tuesday 06/09	Wednesday 07/09	Thursday 08/09	Friday 09/09	Saturday 10/09
Theme		Children and diversity	Children and Migration	Children and global poverty	Children and (health) care	Closure	Departures
9 – 10.30	Free	Cultural diversity and the idea of human rights Jakob De Roover & Sufiya Pathan	Protecting children on the move: a Global South perspective Kristien Van Buyten	Child poverty: fact and figures Dave Gordon	Practices of child care in and after encampment Indra Versmesse & Leen De Nutte	Feedback on papers, evaluation and brainstorming Course organisers	Departures
11 – 12.30		Workshop: Concept mapping on debates concerning the right to religious freedom Jakob De Roover & Sufiya Pathan	Children on the move: a European response? Ilse Derluyn	Child poverty from a children's rights perspective Dave Gordon	Children's rights in the context of HIV/AIDS and reproductive health Ebenezer Durojaye	Closing keynote lecture (until 11:00) HRBAD experiences of an international organisation: UNESCO Konstantinos Tararas
14 – 15.30		Gender, sexuality and LGBT Lydia Namatende-Sakwa	Workshop Kristien Van Buyten	Flipping the classroom	Free	Departures

16 – 17.30		Individual assignment	Individual assignment	Deadline assignment submission (9pm)
-----------------------	--	--------------------------	--------------------------	--	--	--	--